

Join ALTO for a free webinar November 17-19th: Using the Flagship to Turn the Fleet: The Maleo and New Directions for Conservation in Indonesia

Webinar 1: Tues, Nov 17 10:30 am (Seattle time)

Webinar 2: Weds, Nov 18, 5:00 pm (Seattle time)

See table below for your time zone

Why is the maleo ranked as the world's 19th most critically-important bird for conservation? Why do maleo chicks hatch deep underground? How can ALTO's success in recovering the maleo help shape the future for conservation of many other unique and endangered species?

In this free online webinar, ALTO Director and maleo expert Marcy Summers will talk about the past, present, and future of this iconic species, and how ALTO is using the maleo to shape a new relationship between people and nature.
